Newbury Racecourse

Newbury Racecourse held its first race in 1905 and has long been one of Britain's leading tracks, staging up to 30 days of top class Jump and Flat racing annually, with at least one raceday in every month of the year.

The highlight of Newbury's Jump racing programme is the Hennessy Gold Cup, a handicap chase over an extended three and a quarter miles, which usually takes place in late November, and is the longest-running commercial sporting sponsorship in the world. With a prize fund of £200,000, 'The Hennessy' is one of the most prestigious and sought after prizes in the sport and is the focal point of the bet365 Hennessy Festival. The 2014 winner Many Clouds went on to win the 2015 Crabbie's Grand National at Aintree while in 2015 the grey Smad Place was a popular winner.

Newbury also stages Britain's richest handicap hurdle, the £155,000 Betfair Hurdle, on Betfair Super Saturday in February.

On the Flat, Newbury's high-quality programme includes the Al Shaqab Lockinge Stakes in May, with the Group One race over a mile worth £350,000. It has been won by many of the greats of the sport, including Frankel in 2012.

The racecourse is also a thriving events venue, hosting a huge range of activities including weddings, concerts, and conferences for 20 to 1,000 attendees for a wide spectrum of businesses and organisations in stunning surroundings. In addition, it runs a successful private nursery, providing a safe, happy and stimulating learning environment for many pre-school children.

Newbury is now home to a major housing development by David Wilson Homes, allowing people to live in a unique location alongside a world-renowned sporting venue, which also benefits from its own golf course in the centre of the racecourse and a Nuffield Health Club.

The Betfair Hurdle - Facts & Figures

History

The Betfair Hurdle was first staged in 1963.

The inaugural race was run as part of the Grand National Meeting at Aintree and went to the 20/1 shot Rosyth, trained by Ryan Price in Findon, Sussex and ridden by Josh Gifford.

The race moved to Newbury in 1964 and has remained there ever since.

Betfair is only the third sponsor of the race. Schweppes backed the contest from 1963 to 1986. The Tote, under various guises, was the sponsor between 1987 and 2011. Betfair took over the sponsorship in 2012.

The Betfair Hurdle, Britain's richest handicap hurdle with a prize fund of £155,000, is run over a distance of two miles and 69 yards.

Multiple Winners

Rosyth, who won the first staging at Aintree in 1963, also won the first running at Newbury and remains the only back-to-back winner.

Geos, trained by Nick Henderson, is the only other dual winner, scoring in 2000 and 2004.

Trainers

The early years were dominated by Ryan Price, who won four of the first five renewals.

Nicky Henderson became the most successful trainer ever in the race when My Tent Or Yours gave him a fifth success in 2013. Henderson's other four winners were Sharpical (1998), Geos (2000 & 2004) and Landing Light (2001). He has had 47 runners in the Betfair Hurdle since 1989.

The only other current trainer to have won the race more than once is Gary Moore, who recorded back-to-back wins in 2007 and 2008 with Heathcote and Wingman. He also triumphed with Violet Dancer in 2015.

Ireland

There have been four Irish-trained winners – Good Review (1972), Irish Fashion (1976), Spirit Leader (2003) and Essex (2005).

Jockeys

Josh Gifford, who partnered all of Ryan Price's winners, is the most successful jockey in the Betfair Hurdle with four victories – Rosyth (1963 & 1964), Le Vermontois (1966) and Hill House (1967). Gifford also became the only winning jockey to have subsequently trained the winner (Deep Sensation in 1990).

Jamie Moore is the most successful current jockey, with two victories aboard Heathcote (2007) and Wingman (2008).

Richard Johnson has had more rides in the Betfair Hurdle than any other current jockey, 13, with three seconds to his name, Cheltenham in 2015, Rooster Booster in 2004 and Rooster Booster again in 2001.

Betting

Favourites have a poor record in the Betfair Hurdle. In the 42 runnings to date, just seven favourites have prevailed (just under 17 per cent). The most recent winning favourite was My Tent Or Yours at 5/1 in 2013.

The biggest shock was 50/1 shot Heathcote in 2007, while Cala Mesquida (1971) and Splash Of Ginge (2014) were both 33/1 chances.

Age

The breakdown of winners by age is:

5yo – 14

6yo – 16

7yo – 9

8yo – 2

9yo – 1

Weight

Triple Champion Hurdle scorer Persian War carried the biggest weight ever to victory in the Betfair Hurdle when shouldering 11st 13lb in 1968.

At the other end of the spectrum, six winners have carried the minimum weight of 10st, the most recent being Wingman in 2008.

Field Size

The biggest ever field was 41 for the first running at Aintree in 1963. At Newbury, the most runners to have ever lined up was 33 in 1968. The current safety limit is 24 and 23 lined up in 2015.

The smallest field was eight in 1995, when the ground was heavy.

Betfair Hurdle & Champion Hurdle

Two horses have completed the Betfair Hurdle-Champion Hurdle double.

Persian War (1968) and Make A Stand (1997) both won at Newbury in the same season as their Cheltenham success. Persian War went on to win the Champion Hurdle again in 1969 and 1970.

Mares

Two mares have won, Mysilv (1995) and Spirit Leader (2003).

Did You Know?

There was a Royal success in 1975 when the Fulke Walwyn-trained Tammuz, owned by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, beat 27 rivals at 18/1. Tammuz, a gift from Her Majesty The Queen, prevailed by a half a length.

Of current trainers, Nicky Henderson has sent out the most runners in the Betfair Hurdle in any one year – with six horses representing him in 2013, with the winner My Tent Or Yours followed home by Petit Robin (fifth), Cash And Go (seventh), Lyvius (12th), Punjabi (14th) and First In The Queue who was pulled up.

Ireland's champion Jump trainer Willie Mullins has had 11 runners in the Betfair Hurdle since 1998 and the closest he has come to success is with Mister Hight, fifth in 2007.

Run at Kempton Park when Newbury's card was abandoned because of snow*

History

The Betfair Denman Chase was first run in 2000. It was promoted to Listed status in 2002 and then to Grade Two level the following year.

The race takes place over just short of three miles and is a trial for the following month's Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Originally known as the Aon Chase, Betfair took over the sponsorship in 2012 and renamed it the Denman Chase. Denman won five of his seven starts at Newbury, including two Hennessy Gold Cups under top-weight, and took the 2008 Betfair Denman Chase before a famous victory in the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Trainers

Paul Nicholls has dominated the Betfair Denman Chase. The none-time champion Jump trainer has amassed eight victories courtesy of See More Business (2000), Shotgun Willy (2001), Valley Henry (2003), Kauto Star (2007), Denman (2008), Tricky Trickster (2010), Noland (2011) and Silviniaco Conti (2013).

Jockeys

Ruby Walsh and Richard Johnson are the most successful jockeys with three wins each.

Through his association with Paul Nicholls, Walsh partnered Kauto Star, Tricky Trickster and Silviniaco Conti, while Johnson recorded successive victories aboard Shooting Light (2004) and Farmer Jack (2005) and deputised for the suspended Nico de Boinville on novice Coneygree in 2015.

Betting

Favourites have obliged in seven of the 15 runnings (just over 46 per cent).

Kauto Star is the shortest-priced winner at 2/9, while Shooting Light was the 33/1 outsider of eight when scoring in 2004.

Age

Seven-year-olds have just edged out eight-year-olds as the most successful age group.

7yo – 6
 8yo – 5
 9yo – 1
 10yo – 2
 11yo – 1

Betfair Denman Chase & Cheltenham Gold Cup

Kauto Star, Denman and Coneygree did the Betfair Denman Chase-Cheltenham Gold Cup double in the same season. Coneygree was the first novice to win the Cheltenham Gold Cup since Captain Christy in 1974.

*Run at Lingfield Park after Newbury was abandoned because of frost

History

Registered as the Game Spirit Chase, the Betfair Exchange Chase was first run as a Grade Two event in 1992. Founded originally in 1953, the race was a limited handicap before then. The race is run over an extended two miles (2m 92y) and is a trial for the Queen Mother Champion Chase at the Cheltenham Festival.

Multiple winners

There have been four dual winners: Waterloo Boy (1992 & 1993), Viking Flagship (1994 & 1996), Azertyuiop (2004 & 2005) and Master Minded (2008 & 2010).

Trainers

Paul Nicholls is the most successful trainer with seven victories. As well as sending out Azertyuiop and Master Minded, Nicholls has scored with Flagship Uberalles (2000), Kadarann (2003) and Mr Mole (2015). Nicky Henderson is the only other current trainer to have won the race more than once, thanks to French Opera (2011) and Sprinter Sacre (2012).

Jockeys

Ruby Walsh is the most successful jockey with four victories, having partnered Azertyuiop and Master Minded to their respective victories. Barry Geraghty and Timmy Murphy are the only other current riders to have scored more than once. Geraghty rode French Opera and Sprinter Sacre, while Murphy recorded back-to-back wins on Don't Be Shy and Well Chief in 2006 and 2007.

Betting

In 23 runnings, 10 favourites have won (just over 43 per cent). Flagship Uberalles was the shortest-priced winner at 1/4 in 2000, while Kadarann, also trained Paul Nicholls, is the longest-priced scorer at 5/1 in 2003.

Age

The breakdown of winners by age:

- 5yo – 2
- 6yo – 3
- 7yo – 5
- 8yo – 6
- 9yo – 5
- 10yo – 2

Field Size

Well Chief saw off seven rivals when winning for David Pipe in 2007, while only three horses lined up in 1995, 1997 and 2000.

Betfair Exchange Chase & Queen Mother Champion Chase

Five horses have completed the Betfair Exchange Chase-Queen Mother Champion Chase double.

Viking Flagship (1994), Azertyuiop (2004) and Master Minded (2008) all did the double in the same season. Flagship Uberalles took the spoils in 2000 and added the Queen Mother Champion Chase in 2002.

Sprinter Sacre won at Newbury en route to victory in the Arkle at Cheltenham in 2012 before returning to the Festival in 2013 to win the Queen Mother Champion Chase by 19 lengths.
