CHEL TENHAM

A Jockey Club Racecourse

The most successful trainers of all time at The Festival

Willie Mullins started The Festival in 2015 with a fantastic 62/1 four-timer on Champion Day last year and gained four more successes over the next three days. This meant he broke Nicky Henderson's record of training seven wins at a single Festival achieved in 2012.

He also equalled the record number of winners sent out by a trainer in a day at The Festival, set by Henderson on the second day of The Festival in 2012 (four).

Ireland's champion Jump trainer has now had 41 winners at The Festival, more than any other Irish-based handler, and has moved to second in the all-time list.

Mullins gained a fourth The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award in the space of five years at The Festival in 2015, adding to his titles in 2014, 2013 and 2011

Henderson, who became the first trainer to reach 50 winners at The Festival in 2013, still leads the way, with 53 successes after two triumphs last year.

Paul Nicholls has been The Irish Independent Leading Trainer at The Festival six times and is fourth on the all-time list with 37 successes, after saddling three winners last year.

The only other trainer at The Festival last year to saddle more than one winner was David Pipe who had two successes, bringing his overall tally to 13.

Mulholland hungry for more Festival success

The Druids Nephew put the icing on a career-best season for trainer Neil Mulholland when capturing Ultima Handicap Chase on the opening day, Champion Day, of The Festival 2015.

Born in Northern Ireland on October 27, 1980, Mulholland took out a licence in 2008 and has quickly established himself as one of Jump racing's most promising young trainers.

He hit the headlines during the 2010/11 season with popular chaser Midnight Chase, who racked up a hat-trick of wins in staying handicap chases at Cheltenham before finishing fifth behind Long Run in the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

The former journeyman Jump jockey relocated from Devon to nearby Somerset in 2012 and has not looked back, with last season yielding a maiden half century of winners, with his horses earning over £400,000 in prize money.

Mulholland said: "The Druids Nephew winning at The Festival would have to be my best day in racing so far.

"We knew he was great order going there and everything just came together nicely. It's not every day a plan like that comes to fruition.

"The Ultima Handicap Chase had been the target ever since his run in the Hennessy. He finished seventh that day, but he had hit a couple of fences on the way round and that told us that he was nicely handicapped.

"The Festival is our World Cup or Olympic Games. It comes and goes very quickly and if anyone wants to have winner anywhere, it's Cheltenham."

Mulholland has assembled a nice team of young horses ahead of the four-day showpiece next month, led by Grade Two scorers Southfield Royale and Shantou Village.

Mulholland commented: "Southfield Royale is one I am looking forward to in the National Hunt Chase (Champion Day, Tuesday, March 15). He looks to have a good chance.

"All has been well with him since Kempton, I just decided against running him on heavy ground at Wetherby. The plan was to run, but what is the point when the ground is like that?

"We had already won a Grade Two by 13 lengths and then he was runner-up in a Grade One, so he doesn't have anything to prove. We want to win the four-miler and there is a good chance you will leave races behind running on ground like that five weeks before Cheltenham.

"I wouldn't have any concerns about going up to four miles. All he does is gallop.

"The plan is definitely for Shantou Village to go to Cheltenham. If it happened to be heavy ground, I would not go but I can't see that happening. I was happy with him on Festival Trials Day (when runner-up to Yanworth in the Grade Two Neptune Investment Management Novices' Hurdle). He was having his first run back from a break on ground we weren't sure about and, as it turned out, he hated it.

"All his rivals had the benefit of a recent run but he was still 10 lengths clear of the third Champers On Ice who is a good horse in his own right. The form is there for everyone to see.

"Can he improve? Yes, he will improve for getting that run under his belt and for better ground.

"We won't be making any decisions about which novice hurdle he goes for until nearer the time. Stamina is not going to be a problem if we decide to go up in trip and, to be honest, the Albert Bartlett (Gold Cup Day, Friday, March 18) probably looks the weaker race at the moment.

"I would say Fox Norton is unlikely to run but Baltimore Rock will probably go for the Arkle (Champion Day, Tuesday, March 15). He won his first start over fences and then was second to a good horse at Chepstow recently. The winner's form ties in with some very good horses and we were trying to give him 11lb on ground softer than ideal.

"The Young Master goes for the race The Druids Nephew won last year, the Ultima Handicap Chase (Champion Day, Tuesday, March 15). He is second or third favourite at the moment and I think he is capable of running a huge race in that.

"Minella Present looks to have a great chance in the Johnny Henderson Grand Annual Handicap Chase (Gold Cup Day, Friday, March 18). He had a very good run when second to Keel Haul at the November meeting and we put him away after with this race in mind. He is in great order.

"We look to have a nice team of horses and hopefully everything goes smoothly between now and The Festival."

The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award

The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award is decided on the number of winners trained over the four days. If there is a tie, it will go down to the number of second places. If there is still a tie, the number of third places will be taken into account and the award will be shared if there remains a tie after that.
