

Brad Oleshansky is an attorney, entrepreneur and connector. Brad spent the first 10 years of his career in Los Angeles as a corporate lawyer in the entertainment and marketing industries working with clients such as McDonald's, Toys "R" Us, Safeway, Old Navy, Hallmark and many more. He also spent two years as Vice President of Business Affairs at Game Show Network in Culver City, CA. Brad joined Big Communications (headquartered in Ferndale, MI) in 2004 as Chief Operating Officer. He oversaw the growth of the company until it was acquired in 2008 by Meredith Corporation (NYSE: MDP). After the acquisition, Brad took on the Chief Executive Officer role where he led all aspects of the company's business, including strategic planning, finance, business development, legal and operations. Brad left the company in December 2012 to pursue new entrepreneurial ventures, including M1 Concourse, a $50M auto enthusiast destination to be built on the site of a former General Motors factory in Pontiac, MI. Brad is a graduate of Ithaca College and Southwestern University School of Law. He is a member of the California and District of Columbia Bars. Brad is on the advisory boards of Ditto Labs, Inc., Huron River Ventures and First Sense Medical, LLC. He is also a board member and on the Executive Committee of ORT Michigan, a global charity focused on education. Brad was honored with the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award for Michigan & Northwest Ohio in 2012.

<http://www.m1concourse.com>