Harnessing Huntsville’s Potential: Housing Choices, Job Opportunities and Quality Education

Project Timeline

- Study Kickoff
  - October 2012
  - City meets with project team to begin efforts and begins formation of Stakeholder Advisory Committee

- Analysis
  - Winter 2013
  - From November through February to develop strategies based on Huntsville-specific trends identified through research and input

- Input Opportunities
  - November 2012
  - These include the community-wide Values Workshop as well as focus group discussions to create basic foundation of approach

- Input Opportunities
  - March 2013
  - These include Vision and Implementation community-wide workshop and additional focus group meetings

- Case Study Completed
  - April 2013
  - City of Huntsville is able to move into implementation phase

The overall goal of the Housing & Economic Development Case Study is to assist in developing strong, stable neighborhoods within the City of Huntsville while tying this effort to an economic development approach.