Concerts on the Quad music series

7/21/2016 6:30 PM

www.huntingdoncountyyarts.com

1700 Moore Street, Huntingdon, PA

The Huntingdon Council Arts Council and Juniata College are once again bringing music to the community with our Concerts on the Quad music series. For four Thursdays in July, the outdoor concerts will feature some great local musical talent. The series continues with two musical groups on Thursday, July 21 starting at 6:30 pm. Music, Music, Music! features a variety of music and music styles. This Huntingdon County based group will also feature Anita Roseborough. They perform for banquets, at the Raystown Lake concert series, Hartslog Day and Festival of Songs in December. (Rehearsal are Monday evenings, 6:45 to 7:45 pm at Fifteenth Street Methodist Church. New members are always welcome.) Take Note is a 15 member female group singing all your favorites from the 40s through today. They perform in churches, nursing homes, private parties, and also are a favorite on the local Telethon. Join us for our series of Concerts on the Quad. Bring your lawn chairs, your blankets, picnic supplies, and your friends and families to the Juniata College quad, in front of Halbritter Center for the Performing Arts. These outdoor concerts are free (donations appreciated) and open to all. Concerts start at 6:30 pm. Mark your calendar for the next concert in the series:

Thursday, July 28: Community Summer Band

Enjoy A Tomb with a View by Norman Robbins at The Playhouse at McConnellstown on July 22, 23, 24, 28, 29, 30, 31, 2016. A Tomb With A View is set in as sinister an old library as one is likely to come across presided over by a portrait of a grim faced, mad eyed old man. There, a dusty, lawyer reads a will (involving some millions of pounds) to an equally sinister family one member of which has werewolf tendencies, another wanders around in a toga like Julius Caesar and a third member is a gentle old lady who plants more than seeds in her flower beds. By the third act, there are more corpses than live members left in the cast. And what about the sympathetic nurse and the author of romantic novels are they all, or more than, they seem to be? Secrets are revealed as the plot twists and turns to its surprising conclusion. For more information contact The Playhouse at McConnellstown at (814) 627-0311 or visit <http://littletheater.com>

Concerts on the Quad music series

www.huntingdoncountyarts.com

1700 Moore Street, Huntingdon, PA

The Huntingdon Council Arts Council and Juniata College are once again bringing music to the community with our Concerts on the Quad music series. For four Thursdays in July, the outdoor concerts will feature some great local musical talent. The series continues with the Community Summer Band on Thursday, July 28 starting at 6:30 pm. The Community Summer Band was formed in 1991 to provide an outlet for adults and gifts youth instrumentalists to share their love of music during the summer months. The band rehearses on Monday evenings from 7-9 during June and July in preparation for the presentation of three free outdoor concerts at various historic venues. Join us for our final Concert on the Quad in July. Bring your lawn chairs, your blankets, picnic supplies, and your friends and families to the Juniata College quad, in front of Halbritter Center for the Performing Arts. The outdoor concert is free (donations appreciated) and open to all. Concert starts at 6:30 pm.

The Playhouse at McConnellstown presents A Tomb with a View

<http://raystown.org/events/tpm-presents-a-tomb-with-a-view2.html>

11680 Raystown Road McConnellstown (814) 627-0311

Enjoy A Tomb with a View by Norman Robbins at The Playhouse at McConnellstown on July 22, 23, 24, 28, 29, 30, 31, 2016. A Tomb With A View is set in as sinister an old library as one is likely to come across presided over by a portrait of a grim faced, mad eyed old man. There, a dusty, lawyer reads a will (involving some millions of pounds) to an equally sinister family one member of which has werewolf tendencies, another wanders around in a toga like Julius Caesar and a third member is a gentle old lady who plants more than seeds in her flower beds. By the third act, there are more corpses than live members left in the cast. And what about the sympathetic nurse and the author of romantic novels are they all, or more than, they seem to be? Secrets are revealed as the plot twists and turns to its surprising conclusion. For more information contact The Playhouse at McConnellstown at (814) 627-0311 or visit <http://littletheater.com>.
