Employment Law Update: What MN Employers Need to Know.....

During this workshop, you will learn about new case law governing employment in Minnesota. We will also apply the past year of cases to common employment decisions. Cases at the state and federal level in the past year have affected: MN Minimum Wage, Overtime Rule (Exempt/Non-exempt), OSHA Reporting and more.

Who should attend?

Human resource professionals, business owners and managers, attorneys, accountants, consultants and others who are interested in learning more about Minnesota Employment Law; a year in review with new laws and case review. This seminar is designed to satisfy the needs of the relatively inexperienced HR employee, the veteran staffer who wants to brush up on some critical knowledge, or the business owner who simply wants more information about employment law.

Presenters from Gislason and Hunter, LLP Mankato MN

Cory A. Genelin, Senior HR Attorney

A professional problem solver, Cory A. Genelin combines knowledge of the law with common sense and leadership experience. Cory's practice includes civil litigation, employment law, banking law, and business law.

Brittany R. King—Asamoa

Brittany King-Asamoa focuses her legal practice in the areas of Employment Law, Family Law, Corporate and Business Law, Civil Litigation, and Agricultural Law. She represents companies in all areas of employment law including unemployment, discrimination and general liability issues.

Jennifer G. Lurken

Jennifer's extensive legal expertise provides large and small businesses, agricultural producers, banks and individuals with effective outcomes. She is an experienced litigator with an emphasis on bankruptcy, banking, civil litigation and employment law.
