Easy walks in Massachusetts with Marjorie Turner Hollman

Wednesday, June 10 at 6:30 PM

Summer is here and everyone is ready to get outside, but where to go? Join Bellingham author Marjorie Turner Hollman as she shares pictures from on the trail! Her two books point you to 65 very local trails in 25 communities.

Caesar, Enslaved with Susan Elliot

Thursday, June 11 at 7 PM

Susan Elliott, a volunteer at the Franklin Historical Museum, recently came across a bill of sale for a resident of the Westerly Precinct of Wrentham (later Franklin) by Franklin's future first town clerk, Asa Pond. She was shocked and soon found that slavery was common in the North, especially among ministers, doctors and lawyers. Susan tells true stories that you may never hear elsewhere.
