

THE CHARLES TENDELL SHOW

My name is Charles Tendell. I'm a cybersecurity professional that has been featured on CNN with Don Lemon, ABC's Good Morning America, The New York Times and more. I host a nationally syndicated radio talk show Monday - Friday from 5-6PM in Denver Colorado called Hacked!. This past week was focused on diversity and helping people on the path to getting into cybersecurity and technology and I think it would be great to share with your audience.

The head of information security for the Federal Reserve, Devon Bryan was on the show recently talking about diversity, and his work with ICMCP.
