Dom Barrett signs with Track
Hopkinsville, KY – Track Bowling is proud to announce the signing of Dom Barrett to its national pro staff.

Barrett, nicknamed "The Dominator", is a four-time PBA title winner, claiming the 2011-12 Scorpion Open, 2012-13 Qatar Open, and 2014 Qatar Open titles, as well as a major title with the 2012-13 World Series of Bowling V PBA World Championship.

Barrett feels not only is the timing right to sign with Track, but it also represents a return to his roots.

"I'm extremely excited to be part of the Track and EBI family," Barrett said. "I was briefly on Ebonite staff in 2008 and it feels really good to be back where I started my international career."

"I've always been a huge fan of Track and I had a lot of success as a youth with the Freak series, Threat and Stomp series," he said. "Track has some of the best products on the market, ranging from the Paradox to the Heat remake. I'm very excited for the new releases to be announced in Las Vegas at Bowl Expo."

Barrett added his goal is to be the best bowler in the world and Track and EBI share this level of ambition, making it a perfect time for a change in direction for his career.

"There are some fantastic people in Hopkinsville that I trust and already have a very good relationship with," he said. "Together, I'm sure we will do great things."

Rob Gotchall, marketing manager of players, promotions and events for Ebonite International, echoes Barrett's sentiments.

"Today is an exciting day for the Track brand and Ebonite International as we welcome a world class person to our family," Gotchall said. "With the addition of Dom to our pro staff, we enhance the Track brand presence globally by having one of the best players in the world throwing our products."

"Dom's accomplishments on the lanes speak for their self and we are excited to be a part of his successes for many years to come," he said.

Barrett currently resides in Colchester, England, with his wife Cassie. In addition to bowling, he enjoys soccer and golf.
