

Get Organized! Christmas Review

When I first thought of an “organizing” company doing my Christmas décor I did have some reservations if they would have the artistic and design aesthetics to make it look fabulous. Sure they would be great at taking down my Christmas décor and perfectly packing it away, but could they create the glamorous winter wonderland I envisioned? Well, the answer is, “YES!”

First, let me say that I have very high expectations and it is very rare for someone to meet or exceed my expectations. Get Organized! blew my mind and far exceeded every expectation I had. Right from the start during our initial consult I could see that they had already done their homework by reading my email and viewing my Pinterest inspiration board. They made sure they clearly understood my style, needs and wants and then gave me many more ideas I had not even thought about.

After we devised a plan of the priorities off they went shopping! Now this did make me a bit nervous to trust someone else to shop for me. I’m the type of person that tells my husband to not surprise me with any gifts. I will just send him a link to what present I want. I was shocked and thrilled when I loved every single item they bought! Not one thing was returned...and they bought a lot of stuff since I did not have a surplus of Christmas décor. Everything they bought was absolutely beautiful, fit each space perfectly, and checked off every style and need we discussed. They even paid close attention to details like finding the exact same type of tree for my garland to match my tree.

Then, the hard work of decorating begun! They didn’t just put ornaments on a tree. They custom made several wreaths, swags and bows. They hung garland, lit my tree, and perfectly wrapped some presents. They also created tablescape, foyer nativity scene and a kitchen mantle JOY decor that should be pinned all over Pinterest! Karla Koehler is an interior design genius, and can arrange décor in ways I would never think of on my own. She made everything look top-notch. And of course they made the most fabulous tree that rivals a $4,000 tree we saw decorated at Decorator's Warehouse. My entire Christmas décor spanning five rooms in an open-concept area is truly custom, glamorous, and brings consistency throughout the space even though each area has its own feel.

Thank you Get Organized! for all your hard work! Now my husband and I can enjoy what little free time we have this holiday season with each other and our toddler twins enjoying our festive home instead of taking that time and stress to decorate it. I highly recommend letting the GetOrganized Elves work their Christmas magic on your home.
