

UCP WORK, Inc. - Out in the Community

Santa Barbara Independent INDEPENDENT.COM

Save the Date! Keep your eye out for the Santa Barbara Independent's June 16 edition, which will feature a 4-page insert regarding UCP WORK, Inc.'s programs and services, generously funded by the Hutton Parker Foundation.

Bruce is a UCP WORK, Inc. participant who recently moved into his own residence. He had previously been struggling with homelessness followed by an unstable living environment. Bruce and his UCP WORK, Inc. Supported Living Services Life Skills Coach Gary worked together to find housing for Bruce. He is very happy now and excited for this "new beginning". We are so happy for Bruce!

Save the Date for UCP WORK, Inc.'s June 2nd First Thursday Art Show (from 5-8pm) at Sundial Studios located at 715 Kimball Avenue in Santa Barbara. This will be a special show featuring unique printmaking works of art created by Sundial artists and generously funded by National Arts and Disability Center. "This activity is being supported in part by the California Arts Council, a state agency, and the National Arts and Disability Center at the University of California Los Angeles."

Some of UCP WORK, Inc.'s Santa Barbara Applied Abilities participants volunteered in the Goleta hills with the Backyard Bounty program for the Foodbank. They loved being out in nature and giving back to their community!

One of UCP WORK, Inc.'s participants, Jim, has worked at Jeanine's Bakery for 13 years. Jeanine's will be hiring another UCP WORK, Inc. employment referral very soon!

