Deadline to submit art for FRESH, Summit Artspace’s juried exhibit, is April 26! See the show May 15 - June 27

The FRESH ART ANNUAL is open to artists who live, work, volunteer or study in Summit, Portage or Medina counties. This year jurying will be based on digital images submitted by April 26, 2015 via this link. We are looking for submissions of innovative, progressive, experimental and/or thought-provoking works of contemporary art. Cash prizes for this juried show will total $1,000. All media-2D, 3D and video-are welcome. If selected, 2D work must be wired and ready to hang. Work must be created in 2014 or 2015. Exhibition will be on display May 15 – June 27, 2015 at Summit Artspace Gallery. Submissions are $15 for up to two pieces. Applicants will be notified by Tuesday May 5 of the juror’s decision.

ArtCetera: arts and culture with a definite younger outlook; how to join and an upcoming event

Whether you’re new to the Akron area or have lived here your entire life, ArtCetera is a great way to learn about the many exceptional arts and cultural assets in our community, while meeting new people and supporting the arts! ArtCetera’s mission is to develop and enhance an appreciation, understanding and continued support for the arts among younger members of the Greater Akron community. The group was founded in August 2002 with the following goals:

1. Support arts and cultural organizations in the Greater Akron Area.
2. Promote an appreciation and understanding of our vibrant arts and culture community.
3. Provide new arts-related networking and social opportunities for young professionals and arts enthusiasts.

ArtCetera presents a diverse mix of events every year combining arts experiences with networking and socializing. Events are held at arts and cultural venues and include museum tours, live performances, art exhibits and demonstrations. For more information or to join ArtCetera email Allyson Boyd at aboyd@mobilemealsinc.org.
