Many of us know Ross a dad from PK3, someone to hang with at the playground, and as a lively presence at a dinner party. In his day job, Ross has been pushing an innovative agenda that's about solving real problems. This isn't just a fundraiser or a request for your vote. Come and engage our friend and neighbor in a frank and lively discussion about what he's been trying to do, and what he intends to do – with our support and engagement – in another term to get there.
