After teaching college and words, have children sit on the floor with a partner and then follow the clapping Pattern A. When I have a class of keepers, I place them into groups of fours and one group follows Pattern A and then the other group follows Pattern B. It's a lot of fun!

Accidental Rules

Accidentals can be:

a sharp

a flat

or a natural

1) if there is an accidental at the beginning of a measure it continues for the whole measure

BUT when you get to the bar line the bar line cancels it.

2) A key signature affects ALL the notes in the whole song

UNLESS

There is an accidental changing the note.

3) The accidental comes BEFORE the note.
(the left hand side)

4) The accidental applies ONLY to the same note in the Line or space.

BUT if you want any other note to change you have to add an accidental in the same measure.

5) EXCEPTION!

If you have a tied note that goes through a bar line the accidental carries on through to the next measure.
