NDSC Conference- 2016 Scholarship Application

We are glad you are interested in attending the 2016 NDSC conference, July 21-24 in Orlando, FL. Rocky Mountain Down Syndrome Association is pleased to be able to offer scholarships to help cover the costs of attending the conference for families in need. The scholarship is to be used towards registration fees for your family.

The Scholarships are available for consideration to any family that meets the following criteria:

1) Has not received a previous scholarship from RMDSA
2) Can demonstrate the financial need for assistance in covering the costs associated with attending the conference,
3) Has a child with Down syndrome (immediate family only)

Two families will be given a Scholarship up to $300. This money will be distributed to the families after they have shown proof of registration for the conference. Applications must be received by May 31, 2016.
