

History Day in Washington State

Celebrating Washington State Archives
2015 Special Award Winners

Celebration Schedule:

3:30 Welcome – State Archivist Steve Excell

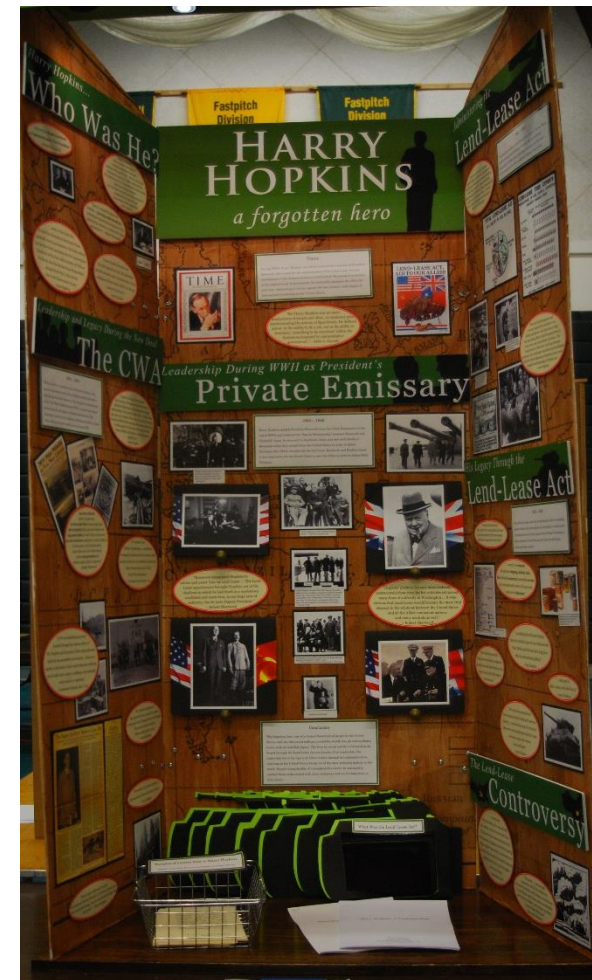

3:35 Documentary by Courtney Beyer, Stephanie Higgins
“The Need for Change, the Dream, the Reality: Martin Luther King Jr.’s Leadership and Legacy”

3:55 Documentary by Victor Hanson
“Albert Canwell and the Canwell Committee”

4:15 Documentary by Charlotte Hanson, Emma Jones
“Victor Steinbrueck: Saving The Pike Place Market”

4:30 Overview of Exhibit by Rachel Rodney
“Harry Hopkins: A Forgotten Hero”

4:40 Overview and Tour of the State Government Archives

3:00 – 5:30 PM, Wednesday, May 27
 Washington State Archives, Olympia

State Archivist's Award for outstanding use of primary sources from the State Government Archives

Junior Division: Group Documentary
Courtney Beyer, Stephanie Higgins

Pleasant Valley Middle School,
Battle Ground

"The Need for Change, the Dream, the Reality: Martin Luther King Jr.'s Leadership and Legacy"

Teacher – Irene Soohoo.

State Archives Regional and Local Research Award for outstanding use of primary sources from Regional and local archives collections

Junior Division: Group Documentary
Charlotte Hanson, Emma Jones

Kingston Middle School,
Kingston

"Victor Steinbrueck: Saving The Pike Place Market"

Teacher – Mary Lou Macala

Senior Division: Individual Documentary
Victor Hanson

Kingston High School, Kingston

"Albert Canwell and the Canwell Committee"

Teacher – Mary Lou Macala

Senior Division: Individual Exhibit
Rachel Rodney

Delta High School, Richland

"Harry Hopkins: A Forgotten Hero"

Teacher – Karen Adams