Our programs serve artists and creative professionals, arts organizations, educators, community groups and municipal agencies.

When you bring together more than 300 creative stakeholders from 62 different Colorado cities and towns to connect for professional development and networking, anything is possible. The Summit is a unique opportunity each year when veteran creatives and emerging leaders sit down side-by-side, learn from one another and strengthen our statewide creative community. This will mark the 5th year of the Creative Summit, which will be held in Carbondale, Colorado on May 5-6, 2016. Learn more about past summits at www.coloradocreativeindustries.org/PastSummits.

WHO IS INVITED?

The Summit is designed for creative entrepreneurs, emerging creatives, municipal and nonprofit cultural workers, and community leaders. This event is ideal for early and late career creative leaders including artists, executive directors, program staff, board members, elected officials, and creative industries advocates from all sectors seeking professional development and networking. For more information on groups included in the creative industries, see our list of Creative Occupations.
