WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*CALL TO WORSHIP

From Psalm 92

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, and to sing praises to your name, O Most High;

To declare your steadfast love early in the morning and your faithfulness at night;

For you have made us glad by your acts, O LORD;

We shout for joy because of the works of your hands.

The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree, and shall spread abroad like a cedar of Lebanon.

Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God;

They shall still bear fruit in old age; they shall be green and full of life,

So that they may show that the Lord is upright; Our Rock in whom there is no fault.

*HYMN No. 307 God of Grace and God of Glory CWM RHONDDA

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving God, you provide everything we need, yet sometimes, we doubt there will be enough time, enough money, enough health, enough memory, and enough compassion as we live out our days. We doubt when we need to have faith. We know you are present with us 0 God, but in spite of ourselves we sometimes feel separated and lost. Forgive us when we rely too much on ourselves and not enough on you, for you are steadfast and strong, ready to meet our every need and receive every petition. Bless each of us, Lord, as we grow older, that we may mature in faith as well as in years. In your mercy, Lord, hear our prayers.

See the human world below, showing scars and beauty too. In a closing circle go, the falc'ner waits for you. Soar, my song, with wings wide fanned, delight and need to trace. Come to Christ's uplifted hand, and find a resting place. One day soaring song shall see everything made whole and new. Day of gladness, come to be! The falc'ner waits for

THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE The APNC began to receive responses from interested candidates in April and has begun reviewing resumes. We plan to schedule phone call interviews with our top candidates followed by in-person interviews with our best candidates during the month of May and early June. The Session approved budgeting for this new Associate Pastor beginning in October of this year. This is a new position for DCPC. This new role will have two primary responsibilities at DCPC. First, this associate pastor will be a "teacher" and will be responsible for the faith development of all age groups at DCPC. They will provide inspiration, vision and training for paid staff and for all DCPC members that are involved in faith formation. Second, this Pastor will serve as the "Faith Leader" of the DCPC children's faith formation programs, including the DCPC weekday programs, the Youth faith formation programs, and adult ministries such as Presbyterian Women, various classes and Bible studies. Each of these three programs has a capable director that will continue to run their respective programs, but will report to the Associate Pastor. This will allow all staff and members involved in faith formation to work together under the guidance and direction of the Associate Pastor. This will lessen the management responsibilities on the Senior Pastor position, allowing for more time for pastoral care and other ministerial duties. Go to www.dcpc.org to read the full job description as posted on the Presbytery website. Please contact any member of the APNC with questions or comments. Please also refer any good candidates that you think would be a good fit for DCPC. Leah Oldenburg is serving as chair of the APNC and can be reached at leaholdenburg@yahoo.com. We thank you for the opportunity to serve the members of DCPC and look forward to reporting back to you soon.

Biblical Literature: May 1: Abraham is tested by God. And, it would seem, he passes the test with flying colors. Abraham, according to Jewish and Christian exegetical tradition, is the model of obedience. But what happens when we discover that two writers were at work in Genesis 22? A story that seems to be about obedience turn into its opposite -- a story in which Abraham clearly disobeys God. Is there a new message we need to hear from this famous passage?

May2: The Israelites are punished for their wayward ways. Jerusalem is destroyed, as is the First Temple of Solomon. The Book of Lamentations describes the disaster in painful, moving terms. But Daughter Zion

(Jerusalem) is not content to describe the horror she experiences. She confronts and challenges God, even going so far as to accuse Yahweh of mass murder. What happens when we explore the text in context and with the Hebrew fully in mind? What does such a narrative offer us in our day and age?
