*CALL TO WORSHIP

(From Luke 4)

In the wilderness of life, we have hope;

We live by the Word of the Lord.

In the face of temptation, we proclaim;

We worship the Lord our God alone.

On the Lenten Journey, we trust;

We give ourselves freely to God's way in our lives.

Let us worship God.

Lord, Who throughout These Forty Days

ST. FLAVIAN

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. Forgive us when we are misled by pride, seeing ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have too often failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Hear the Good News of Salvation

NETTLETON

Hear the good news of salvation: Jesus died to show God's love. Such great kindness! Such great mercy! Come to us from heaven above. Jesus Christ, how much I love you! Jesus Christ, you save from sin! How I love you! Look upon me. Love me still and cleanse within.

Hearing the Word

(11:00) WORD FOR CHILDREN Come and See Marilyn Houser Hamm (Children are invited to come forward.)

"Come and see, come and see, I am the way and the truth," said he.
"Follow me, follow me, come as a child, O come and see."

ANTHEM

(8:30)

Jesu, Grant Me This, I Pray C.H. Kitson Geneva Choir

Jesu, grant me this, I pray, ever in Thy heart to stay: let me evermore abide hidden in Thy wounded side. If the evil one prepare, or the world, a tempting snare, I am safe when I abide in Thy heart and wounded side. If the flesh, more dangerous still, tempt my soul to deeds of ill, naught I fear when I abide in Thy heart and wounded side. Death will come one day to me; Jesu, cast me not from Thee: Dying le me still abide in Thy heart and wounded side.

(11:00) Show Me the Course

David C. Brinson

Steer the ship of my life, good lord, to your quiet harbor, where I can be safe from the storms of sin and conflict. Show me the course I should take. Renew in me the gift of discernment, so that I can always see the right direction in which I should go. And give me strength and the courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough, and the waves are high, knowing that we shall find, in Your name, comfort and peace.

Covenant (9:45 a.m. Congregation House)

February 14, and 21: John Kuykendall, Professor Emeritus of Religion and former President of Davidson College, (ably assisted by Jane Cain) will teach "Shall We Gather at the River: American Christians Sing their Faith." Our late beloved Parish Associate Bill Tiemann once commented in a sermon that "Nobody ever goes home from church humming a sermon. And that's a point well taken! What we sing in our worship has a great deal to say about what we believe most deeply. This series of lessons is an "audience participation" experience, focusing upon the music of faith (hymns, psalms, spirituals and other forms of sacred music) which have been strong expressions of American piety and commitment. Each week there will be several pre-selected pieces which typify different aspects of the Christian pilgrimage in American life, together with an opportunity for class members to make selections of their own. Jubilee (9:45 a.m. Student Center) February 14-Mark Siljander, president of "Bridges to Common Ground," will lead the Jubilee Class this Sunday in a discussion of current politics, especially in connection with radicalization. Mark is author of the award winning and bestselling A Deadly Misunderstanding. The book "deals with building bridges to the Islamic world and strategies to thwart the growing threat of terrorism." The class will convene this Sunday in the Student Lounge, our regular meeting place. We invite all interested persons to attend.
