

Healthy Boundaries 201

Advanced Workshop for Pastors who have previously attended a boundaries workshop

Monday May 18th or Tuesday, May 19th

9 am - 4 pm

Messiah Lutheran Church

5202 Cottage Grove Road, Madison

Sponsored by the Wisconsin Council of Churches,

Wisconsin Conference of the United Church of Christ, Wisconsin Annual Conference United Methodist Church, South Central Synod ELCA, John Knox & Milwaukee Presbyteries, and the American Baptist Churches in Wisconsin

Facilitators Barbara and Dan Dick will utilize case studies and small group interaction to develop healthy boundaries for clergy and other religious leaders in a congregational setting.

Topics include: The nature of power, building and maintaining healthy boundaries, self care, social media, grace in separation and introduction, the congregation's role in boundary vitality, and healthy relationships with children and youth.

Barbara Dick, a member of Wellspring United Methodist Church in Madison, serves as facilitator of the Spiritual Formation Resource Team for the Wisconsin Annual Conference. She works as a freelance editor for Abingdon Press, Westminster John Knox, Baker, and other religious publishers on a wide variety of leadership, worship, and preaching resources. Barbara believes in the strength of relational leadership for the church, shared between caring, informed clergy and laity who understand the responsibility of the freedom we have chosen in following Christ.

Dan Dick is an ordained minister of The United Methodist Church serving as the Director of Connectional Ministries for the Wisconsin Annual Conference. Dan is a nationally known speaker, teacher, and author of thirteen books on spirituality, stewardship, congregational development, research, and spiritual gifts discovery, and an advocate for a more loving, inclusive church for the 21st century and beyond.
