Salute to Veterans Honors and Celebrates Veterans in August

Cleveland, OH— This year's "Salute to Veterans: Carnival in the Circle" will take place on Saturday, August 6, 2016 on Magnolia Drive between the Louis Stokes VA Hospital and the Mt. Zion Congregational Church, UCC.

Free and open to the public, this community event features a carnival, live entertainment, classic cars, community booths, and vendors offering great food and shopping. The festival begins at Lakeview Cemetery at 10:00 am, with a wreath lying ceremony at the grave of a local veteran. Following the ceremony, guests can proceed through Wade Oval to the festival on Magnolia Drive. Activities and entertainment continue until 5:00 pm.

"The 'Salute to Veterans' community festival gives us a chance to honor veterans in Cleveland each year", said Calvin M. Curry, Chief, Voluntary Services, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

"This fun, family event brings together the community to thank and honor veterans and their continued commitment," said the Rev. Paul Hobson Sadler, Sr., Pastor of Mt. Zion Congregational Church, UCC.

"We will continue to look for opportunities in which we can unify the communities of Cleveland in support for those who proudly serve and represent our country."

Community support for Salute to Veterans is apparent in the list of event sponsors: The Louis Stokes VA Hospital, the Mt. Zion Congregational Church, UCC, Western Reserve Historical Society, University Circle, Inc., and Lakeview Cemetery.
