

RoberCon 2014

We invite you to be part of Greater Binghamton, NY's SciFi Convention being held at Roberson Museum and Science Center. RoberCon is back and bigger in 2014 as we have expanded to two days, September 27-28.

Last year over 1,200 guests enjoyed the event. Visitors were immersed into a world of SciFi and Fantasy at Roberson, thanks to participation and support from local businesses, vendors and fan groups. It's not too often you get to have a conversation with Captain Han Solo or share an elevator ride with the mighty Godzilla. It's events like this that show Roberson embodies more than "just a museum" – it's a destination for exploration, for unique experiences – but most importantly – for having fun. Community involvement and your participation will help RoberCon continue to succeed.

RoberCon 2014 will feature costume displays and contests, even more gaming experiences, increased panel discussion opportunities and, of course, our merchant area and fan group displays.

Another great component of the event: Location! Roberson Museum and Science Center features great amenities with tremendous space including a three story museum, an historic mansion and a Digital Planetarium. It's the perfect setting as we host fans of every age, size, and imagination.
