

Public Lecture

Unearthing the Truth: Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls

What do recent discoveries in Israel tell us about Judaism and the Jesus movement in the First Century?

Archeologist and author Jodi Magness of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill will offer a fascinating illustrated exploration of Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

The Lux Center
for Catholic-Jewish Studies at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology

2 p.m., Sunday, March 13

Registration required by March 8. Free admission.

Register at <http://LuxCenter.shsst.edu/lecture>

Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology

7335 S. U.S. Highway 45, Franklin, Wis.

Sponsored by The Lux Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology, North America's only seminary-based center for Catholic-Jewish studies. The Lux Center provides public resources related to Catholic-Jewish dialogue, including this lecture. For more information, contact Bonnie Shafrin at bshafrin@shsst.edu or (414) 529-6966.

