WTS – San Diego
Proudly Presents:

San Diego’s New Planning Director Shares His Vision Thursday, January 16, 2014

Bill Fulton is San Diego’s new Planning Director.

In this capacity, he will help lead California’s second largest city (and America’s eighth largest) into a new era.

Bill enjoys a well-earned reputation for being one of the leading voices in Urban Planning. He has served in government before, including terms as a Councilmember and Mayor of two California cities: West Hollywood and Ventura. He is a prolific author, whose work includes the classic “Guide to California Planning”, as well as “The Reluctant Metropolis: The Politics of Urban Growth in Los Angeles”, and “The Regional City: Planning for the End of Sprawl”.

Don’t miss this opportunity to hear Bill’s vision for San Diego and its neighborhoods.
