The countdown is nearly over, as the 3rd Annual Heart of Oakley Festival is tomorrow Saturday, September 19th from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm!

This year's event builds on last year's success and promises fun for all ages. More than 50 vendors will be on site, including popular booths such as Thirty-One Gifts, Creative Memories, Stella and Dot, Avon, Origami Owl, Tupperware and more.

Food vendors to tempt your taste buds, will offer lumpia, rice bowls, BBQ, fritters, gourmet cookies, shaved ice, funnel cakes, kettle corn, ice cream, lemonade and the list goes on. Not to mention, several of the adjacent Downtown businesses will offer specials on the day of the event as well.

The event highlights wines made using locally grown grapes from sponsoring wineries including Cline Cellars, Three Wine Company, Wedl Wine Cellars and Lucca Winery. Not a wine person? The Friends of Oakley will offer micro-brews from Black Diamond Brewing Company with proceeds to help fund their programs including the popular Christmas Basket Program.

Additional features include a live entertainment line up featuring CrossTown 5, Steve Hanson, and Myron Edwins. As well as, YMWO multi-cultural booths and an expanded children's crafts/activities area.

Furthermore, we've identified 6 parking areas to augment the onsite parking. Be reminded that Main St will be closed from Vintage Parkway to Norcross Lane.
