

Michaelmas Festival

2015

September 29 - October 2

CAMPUS EVENTS

Toronto Waldorf School

Hesperus

Village Market

Downtown Toronto

and

Joan Sleight visiting from the Goetheanum

This year's Michaelmas Festival is a co-creation between:

Thornhill Group of the Anthroposophical Society in Canada

Toronto Branch of the Anthroposophical Society in Canada

Anthroposophical Society in Canada

Hesperus Fellowship Village.

For further details on all events please contact:

Jef Saunders, Administrator

Anthroposophical Society in Canada. Tel: 416-892-3656

E-mail: info@anthroposophy.ca

Tuesday, September 29th

8:45 am Michaelmas Play - St. George and the Dragon

The TWS Lower School will celebrate Michaelmas with this traditional play, presented by Grades 2 to 4 students. It takes place in the forest playground and lasts about 30 minutes. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

9:45 am Dragon Bread Baking - Baking Dragon bread in the kitchen of TWS with Warren Cohen.

RSVP regine@arscura.com or phone 905-763-1003

3:00 pm Crafts in the Hesperus dining room with Elvira and Barbara, a surprise activity you will love!

5:30 pm Supper with Dragon bread and soup in Hesperus dining room. Please bring your favourite jam or marmalade of the summer:-)

7:30 pm Gathering in the seminar room or living room for Paul Hodgkins' Preparation of the Michael Imagination. Presentation and sharing.

Wednesday, September 30th

7:30 pm Reading of the Michael Imagination by Kenneth McAlister in the Hesperus seminar room, followed by conversation.

Joan Sleight, our visiting Executive Member from the Goetheanum will arrive and may or may not be amongst us yet. Welcome Joan!

Thursday, October 1st

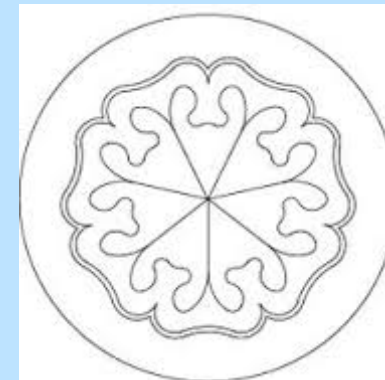

4:00 pm Joan will be with the TWS faculty for a faculty gathering.

7:30 pm Lecture by Joan Sleight in the Hesperus seminar room, followed by refreshments and a guided conversation:

"The New Michaelmas Festival: withstanding the trial of powerlessness, spiritual intelligence, the sense-organ of the heart, free deeds of will."

Friday, October 2nd

7:30 pm Lecture by Joan at the Waldorf Academy, Toronto: "Nobody gets me! The challenge of Empathy in Parenting and Teaching."

Saturday, October 3rd

9:30 am Networking table at the Village Market, come and meet Joan socially!