

Joyce A. Brown, CRP GMS
Bio

After winning a scholarship to Ball State University, Joyce studied Fine Arts and Journalism with the thought of becoming a commercial artist. As life began to unfold, she found herself in sales and management where she spent a large part of her forty-two year career. The last thirty-four years were spent in the Corporate Relocation Industry where she worked for such companies as: National Residential, CHA, Mortgage Team Concepts (her own company) and most recently, nine years with Altair Global Relocation.

In addition to a successful corporate career, Joyce has been very active in many of the Regional ERC Groups, founding the SRRC in Florida (1988) and the TRC in Tennessee (2012) she has been a frequent speaker and panelist at many regional groups and the national ERC. Her contributions to activities outside of her work have lead her to facilitating self-help workshops, becoming the county-wide chairman of The Holiday Project, and participating in many other volunteer roles.

Joyce and her husband Vic reside in Ocala, FL. Together they have four children, eight grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. If you would like to stay in touch, you may contact her via cell at 561-376-1121 or jbrown54321@aol.com
