

2015 WHOA Service Horse School

Are you interested in using your horse in the service of others?

Come learn from knowledgeable instructors with decades of personal experience!

When: June 15 - June 19, 2015

Move in and registration on June 15. Classes start June 16

Where: Williamson County Ag. Expo Park
4215 Long Lane • Franklin TN 37064
www.agexpopark@info

Cost: Registration: $35.00
Stalls: $10.00 for the entire week
Shavings: $6.00 per bag
Electrical and Water hook ups for campers: $15.00 per day

Curriculum: Formation riding, obstacle riding, de-spooking, current trends in working events, dignitary protection, vehicle escort, crowd management, self-defense from horseback. There will be an obstacle course competition, partner obstacle course competition, formation group competition, and a patrol gait class at the end. Certification will be through the New WHOA Service Horse Program.

Participants can also take part in an organized trail ride scheduled for Saturday, June 20th.

Instructors: Retired Mounted Patrol Sergeant J.D. Harber, retired Mounted Patrol Sergeant Terry Palmer, retired Lt. Richard Verbosky, Sam Powell, and Bill Richey.

Contact: JD Harber - 615-775-4334
jdharber@gmail.com

All participants must fill out a registration form. Please fill out and submit your request for participation and email it to jdharber@gmail.com or mail it to JD Harber, 4813 Lynn Dr., Nashville, Tennessee 37211. (Please remember to fill out completely and print or type.)

You will receive a confirmation if you are accepted for this school. JD can be contacted at 615-775-4334. Send no money. Payment due at registration.

