

COURT TENNIS CONTEMPORARY

an exhibition of work by contemporary artists inspired by the original racquet sport

THE NEWPORT ART MUSEUM

17-21 MAY 2016

Press Release

The Newport Art Museum
76 Bellevue Avenue
Newport, RI 02840

Museum Hours: Tue-Sat 10:00am-4:00pm

Opening Reception: Tuesday 17 May, 2-4pm

COURT TENNIS CONTEMPORARY

The Newport Art Museum is pleased to present a group exhibition of new work by contemporary artists on the theme of court tennis. The exhibition is curated by Frederika Adam with work by a group of international artists including: Frederika Adam, Suzette Bross Bulley, Elizabeth Curren, Tim Edwards, Sanam Gharagozlou, Katherine Hamer Charles Johnstone, Michael Lindell, Joshua Mosley, Bill Sullivan and Jacqui Watkins

The exhibition will feature new work produced on the theme of court tennis on the occasion of the men's World Championship in Newport at The National Tennis Club (17-21 May).

For more information: www.frederikaadam.com/exhibition-tennis-contemporary

For all inquiries and to reserve a copy of the catalogue contact Frederika Adam on frederikaadam@hotmail.com

The Exhibition Court Tennis Contemporary coincides with a Conference on the History of Court Tennis: Tennis: Past & Present to be held in the Casino Theatre at the International Tennis Hall of Fame, 17 & 19 May, 2016 (10am-1pm each day). To RSVP for both the Exhibition Opening and/or to purchase Conference tickets please also contact Frederika Adam on the email address above on the Real Tennis Society website: www.realtennissociety.org