

The Siouxland Chapter of CFMA (Construction Financial Management Association) will be holding its next meeting on Wednesday, June 15, 2016 from 8:30 AM – 12:00 PM at CJ Callaway's in Sioux Falls, SD. The meeting kicks off with brief chapter committee updates, and then we are excited to welcome a number of great speakers providing insight on labor-related topics!

First, Mark Broders and Dana C. Jackson of RSM US LLP will educate our members and guests on the Work Opportunity Tax Credit and the impact that credit could have for your organization. Both Mark and Dana bring numerous years of education and experience to draw from. Next, we are excited to have Jim Kayl, principal at the Career & Technical Education Academy in Sioux Falls, give a brief update on construction related programs at the CTE Academy and also talk about their current workforce development initiatives. Finally, Nichole Mohning, partner with the Cutler Law Firm, LLP, will educate our members and guests with a number of updates and current issues in the area of employment law. She also brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in the area of employment law.

Registration will begin at 8:15 AM with the meeting beginning at 8:30 AM. The meeting will be followed by lunch and an opportunity to check out an AGC Training Trailer onsite! We also invite you to join us for our 6th Annual Industry Builder Golf Tournament beginning at 12:30 PM. More information regarding registration for the golf event can be found at siouxland.cfma.org.

CFMA's June meeting is open to members and guests free of charge! For additional information and to RSVP for this event please email siouxland@cfma.org or contact Joel Van Egdome at 712.441.3746. For additional information on CFMA and its benefits see our website at www.cfma.org.
