What We Do

Our Purpose

Is to provide financial and technical support to counties to develop and maintain quality, cost-effective indigent defense systems that meet the needs of local communities and the requirements of the Constitution and state law.

Our Grant Program

In FY 2015 $30.9 million awarded to Texas counties.
Formula grant awards totaled $24 million (254 Counties).
Discretionary grants totaled $6.9 million (18 Counties) .

Our Fiscal and Policy Monitoring Program

The Commission monitors each county that receives a grant to ensure state money is being properly spent and accounted for and to enforce compliance by the county with the conditions of the grant, as well as with state and local rules and regulations.

Our Innocence Program

Since 2005 the Commission has provided up to $100,000 annually to the University of Texas School of Law, the Texas Tech University School of Law, the Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University, and the University of Houston Law Center to operate innocence clinics.. In 2015 the 84th Legislature expanded funding to include $100,000 per year for two new public law schools at the University of North Texas Dallas College of Law and the Texas A&M University School of Law in Fort Worth. This funding has contributed towards 11 exonerations.

ETHICAL

The Texas Lawyer's Creed

I am a lawyer. I am entrusted by the People of Texas to preserve and improve our legal system. I am licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas. I must therefore abide by the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, but I know that Professionalism requires more than merely avoiding the violation of laws and rules. I am committed to this Creed for no other reason than it is right.

A mandate for professionalism:

From Lawyer to Client
From Lawyer to Lawyer
Between Lawyer and Judge

Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct

Requires that lawyers provide competent and diligent representation. Adequate communication with clients, prompt investigation, appropriate investigation, and study of the case facts prior to acceptance of a plea arrangement.

2.01 Advisor

“In advising or otherwise representing a client, a lawyer shall exercise independent professional judgment and render candid advice.” Rule “ A client is entitled to *straightforward advice expressing the lawyer's honest assessment. Comment

“Simply put an is an advisory whose duty it is to his client’s ability to arrive at informed decision”. Smith v. Texas 223 S.W.3rd 396, 398 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2006)

Advisor vs. Advocate

Exposes the difference between the role of the lawyer acting as an advisor with respect to events yet to unfold, and that of a lawyer advocate with respect to zealous representation—“entire devotion to the interests of the client.”

3.09 Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor

The prosecutor in a criminal case shall:

- (a) refrain from prosecuting or threatening to prosecute a charge that the prosecutor knows is not supported by probable cause;
- (b) refrain from conducting or assisting in a custodial interrogation of an accused unless the prosecutor has made reasonable efforts to be assured that the accused has been advised of any right to, and the procedure for obtaining, counsel and has been given reasonable opportunity to obtain counsel;
- (c) not initiate or encourage efforts to obtain from an unrepresented accused a waiver of important pre-trial, trial or post-trial rights;
- (d) make timely disclosure to the defense of all evidence or information known to the prosecutor that tends to negate the guilt of the accused or mitigates the offense, and, in connection with sentencing, disclose to the defense and to the tribunal all unprivileged mitigating information known to the prosecutor, except when the prosecutor is relieved of this responsibility by a protective order of the tribunal; and
- (e) exercise reasonable care to prevent persons employed or controlled by the prosecutor in a criminal case from making an extrajudicial statement that the prosecutor would be prohibited from making under Rule 3.07. Rule
- A prosecutor has the responsibility to see that justice is done, and not simply to be an advocate. Comment

The Prosecutor's Duty: Justice, Not Convictions

“It shall be the primary duty of all prosecuting attorneys, including any special prosecutors, not to convict, but to see that justice is done. They shall not suppress facts or secrete witnesses capable of establishing the innocence of the accused.”

Art. 2.01, Code of Criminal Procedure

Perry Mason and Hamilton Burger

In the 329 criminal prosecution cases “aired on Saturdays” for TV viewers, Los Angeles District Attorney Hamilton Burger twice secured convictions against Perry Mason-defended defendants.

Both convictions were reversed.

Even Burger — despite his record against Mason — recognized that “there is no winning or losing in the true administration of justice.”

Effective

The Effective Attorney

Effective.

Producing a result that is wanted; having an intended effect

There is no substitute for preparation. Every criminal case presents legal and factual problems that can only be solved through time, effort, and expense.

Legislative Charge: HB 1318

Not later than January 1, 2015, the Texas Indigent Defense Commission SHALL conduct and publish a study for the purpose of determining guidelines for establishing a maximum allowable caseload for a criminal defense attorney that... allows the attorney to give each indigent defendant the time and effort necessary to ensure effective representation.
