Family Meeting Workshop:
What is Estate Planning and Why Should You Do It?

You may think that good Estate Planning is all about planning to die; but the best Estate Plans address how to make the most of your assets while you are alive.

And if you only own a dog and a laptop, you have an estate; and you need to have a plan.

A plan can avoid taxes, probate costs, expense, family arguments, and so much more.

Join Tracy Zihmer, an attorney with Feldstein, Grinberg, Lang & McKee, as she shares key strategies for making the most of your Estate Plan

About Tracy: Tracy's practice primarily focuses on Estate Planning and Estate and Trust Administration. In addition, she advocates for clients in Ophans' court matter by representing fiduciaries or beneficiaries, drafting of governance documents and agreements, preparation of deeds, and assistance with property assessment appeals. A 2007 magna cum laude graduate of West Virginia University, Tracy received her B.A. in Criminology and Investigations and was inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa honor society. Prior to attending law school, Tracy worked as a Service Coordinatr for a mental health agency. She earned her J.D. from Duquesne University School of Law where she graduate magna cum laude in 2012. At Duquesne University, Tracy was a published member of the Duquesen Law Review. Tracy is a member of the Pennsylvania and Allegheny County Bar Associations and a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association Probate and Trust Section.
