

2015 WORKSHOP CALENDAR

Generational Giving

Are you wondering why 40-somethings don't pledge and volunteer like parishioners in older generations? When you try communicating with 20-somethings about stewardship, do you feel like you're speaking different languages? Each generation understands differently the meaning of money, the impact of faith and church, and their own capacity for changing the world. This workshop will address these questions and many more, as well as send you out with tools to speak effectively to the 6 different generations in your pews.

Cost for the event is $25/ person or $50/parish for up to 3 people.

- Saturday, April 18/ 9:30a-Noon Christ Episcopal Church | Spotsylvania
- Saturday, August 22/12:30-2pm St. Luke's Episcopal Church | Simeon
- Saturday, September 12/ 12:30-2pm Emmanuel Episcopal Church | Delaplane

Capital Campaigns

The effects of a well-ministered capital campaign can be transforming for a church community. Come to learn how to prepare for a capital campaign, identify new parish leadership, expand opportunities for ministry, increase financial capacity, and deepen congregational vitality.

Cost for the event is $25/ person or $50/parish for up to 3 people

- Saturday, May 2/ 9:30a-Noon Aquia Episcopal Church | Stafford
- Saturday, October 17/ 9:30a-Noon St. Peter's in the Woods Episcopal Church | Fairfax Station

Online Giving

Online giving might make up less than 10% of total charitable giving in the United States but it is making double-digit gains each year. How can online giving also be an encounter with the sacred? As your church works to embrace this revenue path, join us for a conversation to consider the benefits, challenges, vendors and most faithful practices in online giving.

Planned Giving

All the ministries our churches provide in service of God's mission depend upon the availability of financial resources – now and in the future. This workshop will discuss how planned gifts to the church ensure a future that will help serve as a testament of your values for generations. It will provide an overview on Planned Giving in the Church, what you must have in place, proven tools that any church can use, and time for personal coaching as you create your church's plan.

Cost for the event is $35/ person or $75/parish for up to 3 people
[includes lunch]

- Saturday, June 6/ 9:30a-3p Roslyn Retreat Center | Richmond

Checks for all events should be made payable to the Diocese of Virginia and may be brought with you on the day of the event.

Annual Giving

Inspiring Faithful Generosity: Your 2015 Annual Giving Campaign

Members of the Diocesan Committee on Stewardship will facilitate workshops on annual giving using The Episcopal Network for Stewardship's (TENS) 2015 narrative series as the foundation. Because the Diocese of Virginia is a member of TENS, all churches and diocesan organization have free access to these resources! These workshops are designed to complement your annual campaign through principles and practices that inspire faithful generosity.

NEW THIS YEAR are conversations that address the important and often unspoken intersection of your annual fund campaign and pastoral care. How do we authentically begin conversations that encourage giving when parishioners in our pews already struggle financially? What faithful dialogue may you offer parishioners who give generously, but never pledge? When parishioners receive a raise, promotion, or inheritance, how do you ask them to prayerfully consider their giving in celebration and thanksgiving?

These and many more questions will be addressed as we continue to explore year-round stewardship and discuss what you need for a successful annual campaign.

Cost for the event is $25/ person or $50/parish for up to 3 people
