

What's being said about Damian's CD.

This recording of Bluegrass, Folk, Old-Time, and Gospel Bluegrass songs features an all-star cast including Grammy-nominated Jim Van Cleve, Aaron Ramsey and Seth Taylor. The harmonies are wonderful and have that unique family blend.

The songs fall into the broad category of bluegrass, though some are more folk in style, even sounding more reminiscent of James Taylor than Bill Monroe. All of the songs were inspired by true-life experiences, so they will resonate with the listeners as authentic and real. They range from hot, hard driving bluegrass to intimate and touching ballads. They celebrate and bring to life true love, heartbreaks, family, humor (you will laugh out loud), friends, music, and a sincere faith in God.

Best of all, these songs are fresh. These are not clones of the latest musical fad. The variety of the songs keeps the CD interesting throughout. You will enjoy this collection of heart-warming songs.
