

Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA)
1795 Aly Sheba Way #7102, Lexington, KY 40509
www.CHA-ahse.org
www.CHAINstructors.com

Riding into the Future

CHA Region 9 Conference and Skills Workshop Sept 10 - 11, 2016

Saturday CHA Region 9 Conference

Partial list of sessions tailored to your requests

- ◆ Group teaching techniques
- ◆ Training the lesson horse
- ◆ Attracting new students
- ◆ Reducing the liability risks of equine activities
- ◆ Current Horse Industry Issues
- ◆ The CHA Region 9 Annual Business Meeting

Photo Courtesy of the BLM

Saturday evening socialize and network

- ◆ Tour LCCC's Equine facilities
- ◆ Silent Auction
- ◆ Screening of the film UnBranded

Photo Credit Ben Masters

Sunday Skills Workshop

Workshop Clinician:

CHA CEO and Master Instructor Christy Landwehr

- ◆ Preparation for Riding Instructor Certification
- ◆ Learn how to achieve higher certification levels
- ◆ Interactive demonstrations at all levels
- ◆ Western and English skills including Jumping
- ◆ Earn continuing education credits

Attend one or both days, or come early for the Workshop and join in for Saturday evening's festivities. Learn and have Fun!

- ◆ Lunch is included with your registration
- ◆ LCCC Campus Caterer will offer dinner options Saturday Evening
- ◆ Book your lodging early for best rates at www.Cheyenne.org
- ◆ Get your registration form at www.cha-ahse.org Regional Confer-