

Enrich your life and enjoy the flexibility and convenience of learning on your own time.

Courses begin February 1, 2016.

Register Now for these exciting opportunities:

The Bible and Film

Join Dr. Mark Brummitt, Associate Professor of Old Testament Studies at CRCDS, in an engaging exploration of the relationship between the Bible and culture through the lens of movies and movie-making. Participants will explore screen representations of biblical stories and discover surprising and even unlikely interplay between biblical texts and cinematic portrayals.

Films include:

Prince of Egypt (1998),
Evan Almighty (2007),
The Apostle (1997),
Pleasantville (1998),
Life of Brian (1979),
Jesus of Montreal (1989),
The Passion of the Christ (2004),
The Wrestler (2008).

Semester runs from February 1 – May 4.

On Campus Students meet Wednesdays, 6:15 – 9:00pm.

Online Students take the course on their own schedule.

African American Religious Traditions: From Protest to Formation

Led by renowned scholar and preacher, Dr. Marvin A. McMickle, President of CRCDS, this 5 day course examines the denominations, movements, major leaders and overall themes within African American communities from the 18th century to the present.

Day 1. Pre-Christian – West African and Slave Era
Day 2. Late 18th and 19th – Methodist church period
Day 3. Baptist Groups
Day 4. Pentecostal movement
Day 5. Independent churches and the Modern Megachurch

Participants may utilize videoconferencing to attend class sessions “live” or view classes on their own time. Students may participate in all 5 sessions or choose only the ones they want.*

* Reduced fee if choosing single class sessions.

On Campus Students meet March 10,11,14,15, and 16.

Live Online Students may join these sessions via Webex.

Regular Online Students take the course on their own schedule.

The Cost?

- $300 ($150 for clergy or alums of CRCDS).
- Courses may be taken for Graduate or Certificate credit for an additional fee.

Register NOW!

<http://www.crcds.edu/sign-up-for-online-courses/>

Registration ends January 23, 2016.

For more information, contact Dr. Rachel McGuire, Director of Learning Communities and Online Programs at (585) 340-9596 or email rmcguire@crcds.edu.

