

All In the Family

Encourage. Educate. Promote.

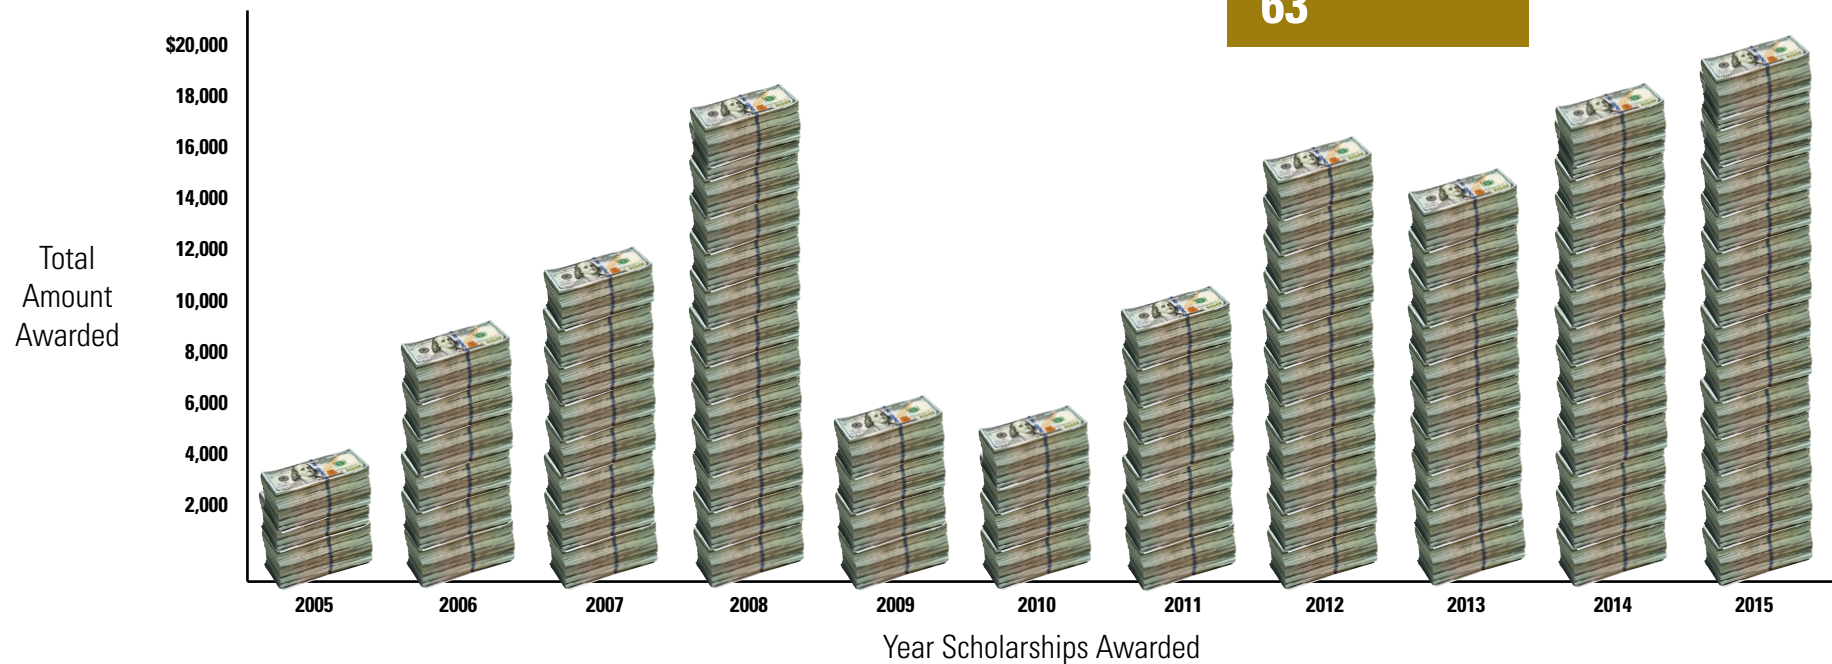

The pest management industry is a family industry, and we appreciate that fact. It's great to see multiple generations of families working together.

In 2004, the North Carolina Pest Management Association Educational Foundation created the Past President's Scholarship to help encourage the next generation of pest management professionals.

Quick Facts

Total distributed:
$133,900

Total Scholarships
given out 2005-2015:
63

Details*

Individual scholarships awarded annually up to $10,000

Students must be enrolled in post-high school programs at technical schools, colleges or universities

Preference is given to students demonstrating an interest in pursuing careers in the pest management industry

Available to owners or employees of NCPMA member companies and/or their family members (spouses, children, grandchildren)

Member company must be in good standing with NCPMA for 2 years

Employee must have at least 2 years of experience

*For full list of requirements, visit www.ncpestmanagement.org.