AUTOCOURSE AND THE CAHIER ARCHIVE

AUTOCOURSE – The World's Leading Grand Prix Annual, commenced publication in 1951, and has since established itself as the most comprehensive and authoritative yearbook covering International Motor Sport. THE CAHIER ARCHIVE began just a year later, when French photo-journalist Bernard Cahier began his professional career in motor racing. In those far off days, he befriended many of the drivers, and became a close confidant to many of the sport's powerful figures. Naturally, his young son Paul-Henri was soon entranced with the glamorous world of Formula One, and was taking his earliest photographs as far back as 1967. Soon his superb eye for a picture put him amongst the top echelon of Grand Prix photographers, and after more than four decades trackside and in the paddock, his striking images still continue to impress.
