The Battle of Stony Point was a great victory for the Continental Army during the American Revolution. Learn details of the military assault on the British garrison as you walk through the original battleground at dusk with a costumed guide. The sounds of musket and cannon fire punctuate the gathering night and bring the story of the American victory alive.

Fee $5.00 adults, $4.00 children (10 and over only) and seniors.

44 Battlefield Road, PO Box 182, Stony Point, NY 10980
