on the Fullerton Stage

2350 N Racine Ave (at the corner of Racine and Fullerton)

The Duchess asserts her freedom of choice to marry who she pleases, even if her beloved Antonio is "beneath her class." Her brothers retaliate in protest and send their henchman, Bosola, to keep an eye on the Duchess. The result: a tragedy full of complex players, destruction, violence, greed, secrets, madness, murders, double crosses, poison, treachery, and good old-fashioned aristocratic revenge.
