INTRODUCING OUR NEW SHEPHERDING MINISTRY!

Shepherding Ministry

JAMES ISLAND PRESBYTERIAN

At the JIPC Leadership Retreat in January, the session and staff identified "maintaining better contact with our members" as one of our priorities for ministry in 2015. With this in mind, our new Shepherding Ministry was born.

Members of the congregation have been divided into small groups based upon participation in the various ministries of JIPC. Each of these groups' ministry leaders will help us to stay connected with the members within their shepherding group. Those of you whose main connection is through Sunday morning worship, were divided among the elders who will work to help us stay connected with all of the members of JIPC. Shepherding Group Leaders will periodically review their rosters and alert the pastoral staff to any changes or pastoral needs within their group. We hope that this new ministry will be very helpful to our pastoral staff as well as the Membership and Congregational Care Committees as we seek to stay connected with our members and minister to your needs. If you have any questions about this new ministry, please contact Cameron Smith at 795-3111, ext. 203.
