

Attorney's Choice: Interesting Articles

This month, I came across several items online, and I wanted to share with you not only the link to the article, but my thoughts about the content as well.

-Scott R. Severns

1. I have long been interested in alternatives in caring for persons with Dementia. This seems like a good idea, and one that is very considerate of the residents.

An Amazing Village Designed Just For People With Dementia

.....

2. This article caught my eye, as we often see these same issues in our own office. Ms. Garber's article summarizes them very well.

What Are the Top 6 Estate Planning Myths?

.....

3. It's Medicaid, not Medicare that covers long term care costs. This article helps put Medicare coverage in perspective.

How Medicare Covers Alzheimer's Disease