EmpowHer - We've all been there.

Whether it was in 3rd grade when mom chose our outfits or hairstyle and we were mortified to go to school looking like that, or it was last week when we saw that commercial with a malnourished model scantily clad in the latest fashion. It is that helpless feeling of believing that we are not good enough and are powerless to do anything about it.

Ladies, EmpowHer is designed to heighten your awareness of who you are in Him. It is through Christ and His work on the cross that we are more than conquerors. It is in Him that we realize that – greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. As Christians, claiming an attitude of empowerment is not a suggestion but a scriptural instruction. God has told us that we can do all things in Christ who strengthens us in Philippians 4:13, that He has placed before us a choice in everything Deuteronomy 30:19. Also, that we have hope that we can walk into the fullness of all that He has for us. As believers we can expect an eternal paradise that surpasses the greatest human experience imaginable on earth.

The work is already finished. Come to the retreat and walk into the resurrection power of Jesus Christ. There you will be empowered to cast aside every weight that besets you and run the race that God has called you to run in Christ Jesus. He has offered us a free will to decide what we will do with the instructions He left us. He even gives us a choice in whether we choose to feel empowered...or not. There is much work to do and we need HIS empowerment to do it. That is the God we serve! One who loves us SO MUCH that He shows us what to do but also loves us enough to empower us to accomplish His work.
