

JOSEPH M. GURZ: Over ten years' experience in commercial real estate including start up and Managing Partner in successful consulting business. Real Estate experience includes residential developments, retail projects and hospitality. Particular interest and focus in locating and developing commercial projects that are "off-market". Responsibilities include research, market analysis, pro forma financial review, creation of marketing material, promotion and client relations.

Previous Experience:

President and Publisher of industrial trade directory. Vice President with large manufacturer and distributor of process measurement and control products. Successful in the creation of new business opportunities, domestic and internationally.