HIGH SCHOOL VOCAL COMPETITION GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

CNYAMT competitions are designed to give students an educational experience while promoting musical achievement.

GENERAL INFORMATION & ELIGIBILITY

There are four divisions: Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh & Twelfth, i.e. 9th, 10th, 11th & 12th grades in high school.

ENTRANCE FEE

$25 non-refundable fee payable to CNYAMT for students of CNYAMT members.

$40 non-refundable fee payable to CNYAMT for students of non-members.

REPERTOIRE

1. An Italian song from the 16th through 18th centuries, or another foreign language.
 2. An English or American song from any period.
 3. A third song to be selected at the discretion of the student/teacher.
- Show tunes are not acceptable. All works must be performed from memory.

ACCOMPANIST

Students may provide their own accompanist. Students using the staff accompanist must send $15 and music with their application. Be sure your name is on the music.

For those winners using staff accompanists, there will be an additional $10 fee for the winners' recital.

SCORES

Students may provide a published score for the judges.

AUDITION PROCEDURES

- Students will be notified by email regarding the schedule.
- Singers must arrive 15 minutes prior to their scheduled audition. A 10-minute warm-up will be available for each singer.
- The entrants announce themselves by number.
- Judges shall not request a student to alter elements in their performance.

JUDGES

Judges will be selected for their expertise, teaching and judging experience, and particularly for their experience with younger singers. There should be no communication between teachers and judges. All decision-making at the competition will be confidential. Judges will be asked to remain until the winners are selected and will be asked to sign a form verifying the final decision. Constructive comments will be written for each student. Emphasis will be on musicianship, musicality, technique, interpretation, and vocal potential. Numerical scores will be kept separate from these evaluations and all worksheets will be destroyed following the competition. Biographical information on the judges will be available the day of the competition.

SCORING

A point system will be used by all judges with 100 the highest & 75 the lowest possible score. Scores are confidential and will be totaled at the conclusion of the competition by the competition officials. Each Level (9, 10, 11 & 12), will be judged separately. Ties are permitted with the tie counted as one place winner. The decision of the judges is final. The chairperson will notify participating teachers of the results via email and distribute evaluations at the winner's recital.

WINNERS

Entrants who win commit themselves to perform on the winners' recital.

Any student not fulfilling this obligation may relinquish their place.

In the event of illness or family emergency, this rule will not apply. The co-chairs must be consulted.

Only first place winners will present their full program provided they do not exceed 12 minutes. (First place ties will perform their full program.) All other winners will be allowed a maximum of two pieces or 6 minutes.

Participating students & teachers are encouraged to attend the winners' recital where Awards & Certificates will be given.

Competition publicity should identify students with their teachers.

GENERAL CO-CHAIRS

Situations not covered by the guidelines will be handled according to the discretion of the general co-chairs. Any action or omission of the general co-chairs may be appealed to the President, whose decision shall be final. Any such appeal must be made promptly.
