

Shabbat Service & Celebration

For families that include members who have special needs

Free and Open to the public | All ages Welcome

Saturday, April 18, 10:30—11:15 a.m.

Experience the joy of Shabbat in a sensory-friendly, “no-hush” atmosphere of acceptance and warmth.

The goal of our service is to be a comfortable, welcoming service for all members of your family, including those members who have special needs. Please feel free to use this Social Story to prepare your child for our Shabbat Service.

Please RSVP to Marci Dickman at mdickman@bethemet.org or 847-869-4230 ext. 310 by April 13. Please include your name, number of people attending, age of individual(s) with special needs, nature of the special need, and any dietary restrictions.

Service will include:

- Singing led by Beth Reinstein
- Dancing with the Torah
- Puppet show by Joann Dardick
- Shabbat take-home project
- Snacks
