

The Jewish Healing Network &
The Lauri S. Bauer Foundation for Sudden Loss
Present:

When Personal and Professional Overlap: Helping Others When You Are Hurting

This session will explore the complex issue of how professionals continue to care for others despite dealing with their own experiences of illness, loss, and addictions.

Keynote Speaker Rabbi Naomi Levy is the founder and leader of NASHUVA, the Jewish spiritual outreach movement. She attended Cornell University and was in the first class of women to enter the Conservative rabbinical seminary. Rabbi Levy was named one of the 50 Most Influential Rabbis in America by Newsweek magazine and listed as one of the most dynamic Jewish leaders in the nation by the Jewish Forward. She has written three books - To Begin Again, Talking to God and Hope Will Find You – and has appeared on The Today Show and NPR.

Panel Presenters will share their personal and professional journeys:

Robert J. Backis, J.D., LSW, M.Div., BCC – Coordinator of Spiritual Care, Highland Park Hospital

Laurie Kahn MA, MFA, LCPC – Founder and Director of Womencare Counseling Center.

Tracey Lipsig Kite, LCSW – HealthCare Navigator JCFS & Founder of the Jewish Healing Network of Chicago

Rabbi Julie Pelc Adler – Aitz Hayim Center for Jewish Living

Date and Time: Friday, April 24, 2015
Registration 8:30 a.m.
Program 9:00 a.m. – Noon

Fee: No charge to attend program. CEU's $15.00 for Social Workers and Counselors, $30 for Psychologists

Location: Congregation B'nai Jehoshua Beth Elohim (BJBE) – 1201 Lake Cook Road, Deerfield

To register: http://jcfs.formstack.com/forms/jhnc_registration

Questions: Elizabeth Cohen 847-745-5404 or elizabethcohen@jcfs.org

Continental breakfast will be served. Dietary laws will be observed.

