

The Coleman Report

at

50

Its Relevance for Policy and Practice Today

Join Johns Hopkins University School of Education and many of the nation's leading education researchers, thought leaders and policy makers as they gather to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Equality of Educational Opportunity Report—widely known as the Coleman Report after the lead author James Coleman.

For More Information, visit education.jhu.edu/coleman

October 5 & 6, 2016

Johns Hopkins University
3400 North Charles Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21218

Sponsored by

Supporting research to improve the lives of young people.