Continued from Page 1
while letting the HA assigns new rates to the non-standard shifts.

When the announ-

continued the imposed an

HEA Pay Stays to ‘Flex’
Continued from Page 1
break the biggest change in 120 years.

In a statement, he said, “The anticipated system they work under has long been broken, meaning that our members are performing unnecessary work for us, and our taxpayers are paying for taxpayer-services doesn’t deserve.”

Address Mismangement

“Their reforms will address longstanding dispa-

)rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

Despite their title, the Local 301 or the current reformers represented by Local 99 are managers who sell their own budgets, hire staff and buy their own supplies.
They work for the DOH and employ about 5,000 School Cleaners and Handymen, under NEA’s contract and 1,000 Firemen and Stationary Engineers. They work for Local 94 and maintain balloons, generators and other medical supplies.

Though Custodial Enginicians still work for the DOH and supervise their work, their new contracts will maintain workers who will be employed by a new non-profit organization, NYC School Superintendent and

MAYOR BLASIO: ‘Reforms address dispa-
rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

MAJOR DE BLASIO: ‘Reforms address dispa-
rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

GREG FLOYD: Gales
compensation for hours worked.

Continued from Page 16

break the largest change in 120 years.

In a statement, he said, “The anticipated system they
work under has long been broken, meaning that our
members are performing unnecessary work for
us, and our taxpayers are paying for taxpayer-services
doesn’t deserve.”

Address Mismangement

“The their reforms will address longstanding dispa-

rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

Despite their title, the Local 301 or the current reformers represented by Local
99 are managers who sell
their own budgets, hire staff
and buy their own supplies.
They work for the DOH and
employ about 5,000 School Cleaners and Handymen, under NEA’s contract and
1,000 Firemen and Stationary Engineers. They work for Local 94 and maintain
balloons, generators and
other medical supplies.

Though Custodial Engi-
nicians still work for the
DOH and supervise their
work, their new contracts
will maintain workers who will be employed by a new non-profit
organization, NYC School Superintendent and

MAYOR BLASIO: ‘Re-
forms address dispa-
rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

GREG FLOYD: Gales
compensation for hours worked.

Continued from Page 16

break the largest change in 120 years.

In a statement, he said, “The anticipated system they
work under has long been broken, meaning that our
members are performing unnecessary work for
us, and our taxpayers are paying for taxpayer-services
doesn’t deserve.”

Address Mismangement

“The their reforms will address longstanding dispa-

rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

Despite their title, the Local 301 or the current
reformers represented by Local
99 are managers who sell
their own budgets, hire staff
and buy their own supplies.
They work for the DOH and
employ about 5,000 School Cleaners and Handymen, under NEA’s contract and
1,000 Firemen and Stationary Engineers. They work for Local 94 and maintain
balloons, generators and
other medical supplies.

Though Custodial Engi-
nicians still work for the
DOH and supervise their
work, their new contracts
will maintain workers who
will be employed by a new non-profit
organization, NYC School Superintendent and

MAYOR BLASIO: ‘Re-
forms address dispa-
rations and mismangement,
which are clear and well-
maintained,” he said.

GREG FLOYD: Gales
compensation for hours worked.