

Charlie Adams and Historic Princeton
Saturday, June 4, 2016, 7:01 am – 7:01 pm
$90 Members/ $100 Non-Members

Charlie Adams once again spends the day with the Berks History Center on this “Frienderaiser” Bus Trip, sharing his ghostly tales and historic tidbits as we journey to and from historic Princeton. While in Princeton we will enjoy a driving/walking tour of the beautiful downtown as well as historic Princeton University, including the architectural history behind prominent buildings and landmarks as well as Princeton’s role in the American Revolution. Lunch will be on your own, allowing time for shopping, in historic downtown Princeton. Later we will tour Rockingham, the final wartime headquarters of General George Washington, where in 1783 he received word that the Treaty of Paris had been signed, officially ending the Revolutionary War. As we turn back to Reading a stop will be made at the recently opened Grounds For Sculpture. This magical place where art and nature always play “houses” almost 300 sculptures, many of them monumental by distinguished artists as Clement Meadmore, Anthony Caro and Beverly Pepper.

Includes: Motorcoach transportation by Elite Coach, guide service and guide gratuity.

Departs from: Shillington Shopping Center BEHIND the Driver’s License Photo Center at 7 am and returns approximately 7 pm.

Deadline for payment and registration: May 20, 2016.
